

Modern Slavery Act Statement

Introduction

The Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement is made pursuant to Section 54, part 6 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (the “Act”) and sets out Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance Company (Europe), Limited’s approach aiming at ensuring there is no slavery or human trafficking in its own business and its supply chains.

Supply Chain

The Company has interpreted that brokers and insureds can be excluded from its supply chain.

Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

The Company is committed to ensuring there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in any part of its business and is working to encourage its supply chains to do the same. The Company’s Human Resource Policies reflects its commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all its business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in the Company. The Company encourages all its stakeholders to report any issues and/or concerns about potential violations of human rights, legal or regulatory requirements, and improper or unethical business practices.

This statement constitutes the Company’s slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31 December 2018.
